Between the 24th – 30th March 2024, the Nextier Violent Conflict Database recorded 14 violent conflict incidents that resulted in 30 fatalities and 52 kidnap victims across 11 Nigerian states. Compared to the previous week, Violent incidents increased by 7.7 per cent, while fatality and kidnap counts decreased by 21.1 per cent and 61.5 per cent, respectively. Zamfara State recorded the most fatalities, with 11 cases in the review week. The attack by bandits on Gidan Zuma community in Bungudu Local Government Area (LGA) contributed to the high tally. The state also recorded the highest kidnap tally, with 26 victims within the same period. Benue, Katsina and Zamfara States recorded the highest incident tally, with two cases each in this review week involving bandits, yet-to-be-identified gunmen, informal security actors and civilians. Banditry remains the prevalent violent conflict in this review week (March 24 - 30, 2024), with five incidents leading to 15 fatalities and 39 kidnap victims. North West Nigeria is the most volatile region in this review period, with 13 deaths and 39 kidnap victims from four violent incidents.
